professional nadoscenses of each of the cycle introducts, worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional ites. Immediate the composition. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar allments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unplossant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredit confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cooth-bound copy. Address as above.

POPE ARRAIGNS FRANCE. Pops Pius, in an address to the French pilgrims, whom he received yesterday, declared that France was making war sgainst the church to undermine the basis of Christianity.

Catholicism, he declared, was suffer-ing persecution by the French govern-ment under the pretext of the separation of state and church. This was proved, he said, by the expulsion of the orders, the trials and condemnation inflicted upon Cardinal Andrieu and other bishops and the threatened laws which extend official protection to irreligious teachers and bring about a state mono polv of the schools.

France, which would make the state the arbiter in religious matters, was at the same time fighting the French bishops who were faithful to the pontiff. These bishops were not allowed, the pope said, to enjoy the liberty granted by French laws to all free citizens, but, on the contrary, were insulted, tried and condemned for the sole reason that they were courageously fulfilling their apostolic daty. All this, the pope said, instead of depressing, must animate Catholies to defend their religious rights. He concluded by urging the faithful to cling to the episcopacy.

The papal words are accepted in Rome as confirmation of the opinion that the Vatican believes the struggle organized by the French government on the school question is intended to be a decisive batle for the complete effacement of Christisnity as a factor in the rearing of children, or in other words, the suppression of Christianity in the France of tomorrow.

It is asserted that the Vatican is ready to fight on two questions; namely, the denial of legal acknowledgment of the Catholic heirarchy and scholastic instruction.

Mothers of the Catholic pupils at the young girls school at Chassigny-Sous-Dun, in Saone-et Loire, France, made a public bonfire yesterday of the interdicted textbooks used by their

FORCED TO MARRY.
A thrilling story of a marriage ceremony performed while three loaded shotguns were trained on the bridegroom was told yesterday in the Supreme Court in Long Island City, N. Y., by Albert Morgan Hauft, a young Virginian, plaintiff in a suit for the annulment of his union with Miss Bessie Hubbard. His relatives used to live in Long Island His relatives used to live in Long Island City, but moved to the Old Dominion several years sgo. Young Hanft made the acquaintance of Bessie Hubbard, daughter of a well-te-do planter living in Crewe, in Dinwiddle county. The girl fell in love with Hauft, he said, but be did not look with favor upon matrimony. He said he with wespons to marry her.

When he got a chance he escaped and

There was no defense to the action John Kieley, of Jamaica, counsel for Hanft, testified he went to Orewe, Va, and personally served on Mrs. Hanft a copy of the summons and complaint. Justice Garreison granted Hanft a decree of annulment of his marriage, on the ground that the plaintiff was coerced into the ceremony.

APPARENTLY RESTORED LIFE. Dr. Louise G. Robinovitch, the young Russian woman who went to New York from France recently and with her declaration that she had dislife, apparently demonstrated yesterday to acientific and critical officers of the New York Edison Company that she can perform wonders with the electric apparatus she has prefected.

In the opinion of those who saw the demonstration Dr. Robinovitch electrocuted a rabbit and brought it to life again by rhythmic electric excitations that caused its heart and respiratory organs to resume their functions. She also showed the advantages of electricity as an arresthetic.

The efficials of the electric company considered the results most important. because they suggested a method of resuscitating those employes who from time to time are fatally shocked in the course of their duties in power houses and elsewhere.

What the young woman was able to o with a rabbit she claims is possible with a human being as a subject.

The rabbit was pronounced dead by competent physicians and in a few minutes was breathing naturally again, and half an hour after the fatal shock it was hopping around the room, a little

STIRS UP HORNET'S NEST,

The controversy between the Firemen's Relief Association and the fire Rosemont, Braddock, startled medical men of the former city commissioners at Richmond has reached an scute stage. Since the commissioners covered a way to bring the dead to adopted a resolution disclosing the turbulent state of affairs and withdrawing the board's sauction of contributions to the relief fund the flow of money into the treasury of the association has ceased. The men most interested in holding the association together are indignant. No less is the indignation of the fire commissioners. It is understood that State Insurance Commissioner Joseph Button's attention has been directed to the operations of the Fremen's Relief Association, and that he is now investigating the system nader which the association is conducting its business.
